Doesn't Hesitate to Turn the Searchlight on Stirring Deeds of 1916.

SAVED 22 CENTS IN YEAR

Disputes, Settled Family Bought a Wrist Watch, and Ran for Presidency.

NEW YORK, Jan. 15 .- The Hon. John J. Butch McDevitt, of Wilkesbarre, Pa., lately candidate of the McDevitt party against the field for the Presidency of the United States, has set an admirable example to Texan Shot and Killed Wife the Messrs. Wilson, "ughes, Benson, Hanly and all other candidates who conspired last fall to beat Butch.

The Hon. Mr. McDevitt, who will be remembered as the one-time "Millionremembered as the one-time "million-aire for a Day," has sent to the Sun not only an itemized account of his expenses, but also an almost com-plete record of his income and out-come for 1916, his troubles with rela-tives—now partly cleared up—and his daily output for meals, laundry, and other recessities. The personal exother necessities. The personal ex-penses are, it is needless to say, data of extreme value at a time when the high cost of living is a national is-

High Spots of His Year.

Hon. McDevitt, following his usual custom of writing on the business paper of a friend when informing the Sun' of his personal affairs, has selected from his 1916 diary these high spots for general publication:

Wilkesbarre Agency of Philadel phia Life Insurance Company, C. H. Gallagher, general agent. 'In the Midst of Life We Are In Dearth'— Gallagher. Insure with Gallagher Gallagher. Insure with Gallagher now and he will make your wildow happy. Second floor, SI South Main street, Wilkesbarre, Pa. Take the elevator—Also accident insurance. "Wilkesbarre, Pa., January 5, 1916. To the Editor of the Sun: Friend Editor—I am dictating to Gallagher's the second of the Sun of the Sun stenographer while he is out to Red-ington's for dinner the following Im-portant Events During My Career in 1916' for the general public's perusal. Please drop your work long enough to thoroughly digest what I have to say, as it is even more important my former communications.

$1.57 His Closing Assets. "I find from an analysis of my diary that in 1916 I made-never mind how, but I made it, brother-the sum of $2,200, all of which I spent. world say further I had at the words, a sing peace.

C. McLean my annual report next year, by which

"Although I only consumed one meal a day, and this as a rule never amounted to more than 30 cents, I usually gave the waiter 20 cents. Nevertheless $900 went in restaurants. Fifty cents a day for 366 days means $183. Who got the other $717?

Cost of Popularity.

"I did not drink any liquor and my cigar bill was less than one buck s day. None of it went to the country club restaurant, because I always carry my dinner pail to the golf links. I suppose it went for the hangerson who gather around my table in rectaurants. Easy come, easy go. I'm popular, even if I do say it as should During the year I spoke in seven churches, attended sixty-two banquets and smokers, was met on three (dif ferent) occasions by brass bands ran for Congressman-at-large in my home State, and was defeated, traveled over sixteen States, and had sever proposals of-marriage.

"I was dead broke fifteen different and went forth and spoke in nine States place I spoke and also in the places didn't speak

"During 1916 I read a great deal of Shakespeare, Goldsmith, Burns, and Harold Bell Wright. Also Scientific American, Cosmopolitan, Snappy Stor ies, Popular, Review of Reviews, and other high class literary magazines and the current news such as the Sun, Hazleton Sentinel, Wilkesbarre Record, New York Journal-for Bris-bane's stuff, mostly-Nanticoke News, Elmira Telegram-for the local hom fireside affairs-New Staats-Zeitung, and the Berlin Lokal Anzeiger-for the truth about the war-and the Pittston Gazette.

Bride Didn't Want Him.

"Was to have acted as groomsman for a coal operator friend but the bride objected. Attended four funer als and gave three rousing cheers at the corner of Ross street when an-other funeral—I knew the gent back--passed down South ton street last summer. Stood spon sor for the child of a fellow clubman, but the baby don't know about this "Would state I had a series of quar reis which might be called all one quarrel with my brother's wife, and we don't speak since. Also had a quarrel with my oldest sister over a party he gave her daughter. I did not lik the people she invited—you can print that—but we are good friends again, meaning I and my sister, not I and the people she invited. Please make "I published a paper during September and decided October 1st .o get out of the business at once. Wrote a play, two novels and many poems, which I can prove by opening my desk in Alderman Frank Brown's of-fice. After thought I came to a decision to help Ireland procure Home cision to help Ireland procure Home Rule, although I am of Scotch de-scent, and bring peace to warring na-tions during the coming year accord-ing to a scheme I have developed. WILL GO ON TRIAL FOR DUAL MURDER and Army Officer Last July.

SAN ANGELO, Tex., Jan. 15 .- Har ry J. Spannel, who first said he was "glad" and later that he was "sorry" he shot his wife and Maj. M. C. But ler, U. S. A., as they rode through the streets of Alpine in an automobile last July, went to trial for murder here today. Strong feeling against Spannel forbade his trial in Alpine.

Jealousy caused by the friendship between Mrs. Spannel and Major But-ler is alleged to have led the former music teacher to murder both of them during an automobile ride he had invited the army officer to take with them. Spannel, driving, with Major Butler and Mrs. Spannel in the tonneau, suddenly drew an automatic, whirled about and emptied it, first into his wife, then Butler. Both died instantly.

After an army commission investi-gated, Major Butler was exonerated by the Government, and elevated on the army records to the rank of colonel, so his widow and daughter might have a larger pension.

SUES STREET CAR CO.

Annie A. Carter today filed suit in the District Supreme Court to re-cover $5,000 damages for alleged injuries from the Georgetown and Ten-nallytown Railway Company. The plaintiff alleges that a car on which she was a passenger struck an au-tomobile at Massacrusetts and Wisconsin avenues on January 6, 1914 and that she was thrown from her seat and seriously injured. Attorneys Edward L .Gies and Michael C. O'Brien appear for the plaintiff.
